

Supported by

FONDAZIONE
MAISTO

SAVE THE DATE

---

Hybrid Conference TAX TREATY CASE LAW AROUND THE GLOBE 2024

We are thrilled to extend a special invitation to you for the upcoming Hybrid Conference on TAX TREATY CASE LAW AROUND THE GLOBE 2024, organized by the Fiscal Institute Tilburg of Tilburg University in collaboration with the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law of Vienna University.

Event Details:

- Date: May 13 – 15, 2024
- Venue: Tilburg University Premises and Online

About the Conference:

Join us for an insightful exploration of the most intriguing Tax Treaty Cases globally, decided in 2023. Our conference, spanning five continents, features experts from different jurisdictions who will present and discuss the most relevant decisions from their countries. With a comprehensive coverage of tax treaty cases, our program is designed around eight distinct sessions, each focusing on key topics identified as "baskets."

Conference Highlights:

- Hybrid Approach: Seamlessly blending virtual and in-person experiences.
- Engaging Sessions: Presentations and critical discussions on tax treaty cases.
- Global Perspectives: Experts analyzing cases from all around the world.
- Interactive Participation: Join actively in discussions on case impacts.

Scientific Publication:

The scientific findings and discussions from the conference will be compiled into a comprehensive book by the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) in cooperation with Linde, ensuring a lasting impact on the field.

Stay Tuned:

For further details on the program, speakers, and registration, please keep an eye on your inbox for upcoming emails and visit our website.

We are looking forward to your active participation in this groundbreaking conference that promises to substantially contribute to the future of tax treaty interpretation and application globally.

Best Regards,
Eric Kemmeren, Cihat Öner, and Mart van Hulten