EATLP Congress 2019
Tax evening – Vincci Soho Hotel
7 June 2019
VINCCI SOHO

Within the Hotels in Madrid Spain, the Vincci Soho is special because is made up of five historic buildings.

All cultural heritage sites, whose facades form an angle along the main streets of Prado-Leon and Leon-Cervantes. All five centrally located buildings have been completely renovated. The hotel houses 169 rooms designed and equipped with air conditioning and heating that can be adjusted in each room, direct telephone, satellite TV, mini-bar, room service, a safe, hair dryer, free wifi and a complete welcome set.

Located in the heart of the historic centre of Madrid, the hotel is only a stone’s throw from the famous “Art Triangle” formed by the city’s main museums - the Prado, the Reina Sofia and the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum of Modern Art.

This hotel - one of the most modern in the city - sits in the famous Barrio de las Letras neighbourhood, only a few steps from the Plaza Santa Ana and Las Cortes squares, the Ateneo and the famed Puerta del Sol.

After only a ten minute walk, you will be enjoying the Plaza de Opera, as well as the marvellous Plaza de Oriente and Royal Palace.

A few metres from the hotel you can take a tourist bus to guide you around the city, relating the stories of the most important streets and monuments in Madrid.

The hotel has an à la carte restaurant, buffet-type breakfast, bar-café, spacious common areas, indoor patio, parking and convention and meeting service.

The hotel is comprised in the list of recommended hotels provided by the organization.
