'Tax system integrity in a digital age' 13th International Conference on Tax Administration 5th & 6th April 2018, Sydney, Australia

Call for Papers

The International Conference on Tax Administration is a prestigious biennial event that brings together leading tax administrators, academics and practitioners from around the globe.

The theme of the 2018 conference will be Tax system integrity in a digital age. The conference will explore the impact of digital and disruptive technologies upon all aspects of tax administration in developed and developing economies, including (but not limited to): taxpayer and intermediary interactions with revenue authorities; tax filing; tax compliance and compliance costs; tax collection; information and big data management; the cashless economy; blockchain and crypto-financing; harnessing technology in the post-BEPS environment and taxing the virtual economy.

Your proposal should include the following details

- title of the paper;
- author(s) brief professional bio and contact details;
- an abstract of between 200–500 words of the contents of the proposed paper including its findings; and
- status of the paper (for example, whether it is part of ongoing research or whether it has been previously published, etc).

Proposals should be sent to Professor Binh Tran-Nam at b.tran-nam@unsw.edu.au with the subject 'Tax Admin Conference Call for Papers 2018' by end of Friday 17 November 2017 (Sydney time).

A Steering Committee will select papers for the conference and will advise you of its decision by mid December 2017. Full papers will be required to be submitted by early March using the conference template. Selected papers will be published in a special issue of the eJournal of Tax Research (an A-ranked journal in the Australian Business Dean Council's List of Quality Journals).

The Cedric Sandford Medal will be awarded to the best paper presented at the conference (only for papers submitted on time). The medal is in memory of the late Emeritus Professor Cedric Sandford and is judged by an independent expert panel.
