Articles of Association - Article 5

1. Membership of the Association shall be open to individuals who bear the title of ordinary, extra-ordinary, associate, honorary or retired professor of tax law, and other individuals who have achieved distinction in the field of tax law and fulfil an equivalent academic function in teaching and supervising doctoral candidates at a University in a European country. In the case of a researcher of a high international reputation, the Executive Board with the consult of the Academic Committee may in the latter case make exceptions.
2. Associate membership of the Association shall be open to individuals who bear the title of ordinary, extra-ordinary, associate, honorary or retired professor of tax law, and other individuals who have achieved distinction in the field of tax law and fulfil an equivalent academic function in teaching and supervising doctoral candidates at a University in a non-European country. In the case of a researcher of a high international reputation, the Executive Board with the consult of the Academic Committee may in the latter case make exceptions.

Please return this form and enclosures to the e-mail address: eatlp@ibfd.org

The EATLP EB will discuss all applications at the next EB meeting, to check all criteria and for acknowledging the distinction.
